Whereas, Said Presiding Elder cannot personally entertain the same, but recognizing that the Conference has certain rights in this case, as have also the parties preferring the charges, as well as the brother against whom the charges are made, and being unwilling to assume the sole responsibility in this matter, I therefore move that a fraternal committee consisting of one minister from each Presiding Elder's district be appointed to examine said charges and such additional evidence as may be placed in their hands, and report to this body the action that ought to be taken in said case before adjournment tomorrow noon. It being understood in this that the name of the brother appearing in the charges be withheld unless the charges should be recognized by the Conference.

Whereas, Such appointment should be guarded most jealously and carefully; be it therefore

VI. PRESIDING ELDERS' REPORTS.

Burlington District.

DEAR BISHOP AND BRETHREN:

In the interest of brevity, and with the view of leaving each pastor to report in detail so much of his work as opportunity may accord to him, this summary of the year's toil on the Burlington District is herewith submitted:

We have had two changes in pastoral relation during the year. M. L. Sanders, who was appointed to the Hillsboro Circuit in December last, transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, and left this appointment in our hands to be cared for as best we could.

We did this for a time, by providing for the Sunday services in the employment of W. B. Rossell, a local preacher, who resides on a farm within the bounds of the Salem Circuit. The preaching of Bro. Rossell and such pastoral labor as he could render from his own farm cares and duties were very acceptable to the people of all the appointments both in and outside of the church.

Bro. W. H. Munster, having finished his Divinity Course in Boston Seminary, was secured to fill out the last three months of the year. He has given general satisfaction and comes to us now by recommendation from the District Conference for admission on trial in this Conference. Bro. E. L. Tennant, for the health of his wife, asked his quarterly conference in May to be released from Crawfordsville charge until Conference. This request was granted, and with his family he went into the Indian Territory and has been serving a station in this home mission field. He thinks best not to continue longer here but will return for work in his own Conference. C. H. Myers has been supplying Crawfordsville since the 20th of May.

Dr. Swickard has been in poor health for the last three months that has somewhat interrupted pulpit and pastoral service, but we are pleased to report that he is gradually regaining his usual health and vigor and indeed is now quite himself again.

Bro. Sinclair, a supernumerary of the Conference, has had serious illness, that for a time created something of anxiety and alarm on the part of family and friends, but he also has recovered his usual health. Aside from the brethren just mentioned the health of the preachers and their families on the Burlington District has been good.

From our Conference and District Rolls we note the removal by death of two much-loved and honored brethren. C. W. Powelson and Nelson Wells. Brother Powelson, as agent of the college, was taken from the activities of his work by unexpected sudden death. He died January 6th, 1906, away from home and family. His death was blessed in the Lord. "He rests from his labor and his works follow."

Brother Wells, one of the oldest members of the Iowa Conference, and for years sustained a superannuated relation to his Conference, closed his earthly life of suffering, to join his wife and daughter in the home of the redeemed, they having preceded him just two and three weeks before. We shall ever bear in loving remembrance these our honored dead.

The year has been marked by quite encouraging evangelistic results. Each charge, save one, held extensive revival meetings. The number of conversions was about twelve hundred. The net gain to our membership by accession, however, will not be nearly so many. The removal by death and by emigration from this oldest part of the state into the newer parts of the country has greatly depleted our membership. I hope, however, the report of pastors this year for Burlington District alone will show a net gain to our membership of at least six hundred.

Ten charges made an advance in pastoral support this year to the aggregate amount of $800.00 and with one or two exceptions their salaries will be paid in full, and in these exceptions the deficit will be small. The disciplinary plan for raising supplies for ministerial support, wherever introduced and faithfully worked, yield invariably satisfactory results. We have urged upon our boards of stewards the adoption of this plan, and a majority are following the directions of the discipline, the remainder are ready with the proverbial answer "in part."

We have but little to report in the way of church enterprise. We are well supplied with beautiful churches and chapels. Our property is in good repair, well kept and insured. We have twenty-four parsonages; but one circuit without a home for the pastor, viz. Mt. Pleasant West. Special mention perhaps should be made of the improvement to the amount of $1500.00 of our Long Creek Chapel. Much credit is due the pastor, A. M. Mahaffie, for the rearranging and beautifying this church, until it is now one of the best and handsomest country chapels of the Conference.

The periodicals of our church are not taken by the families of our people in numbers as large as we could wish. We believe the family of Advocates and Epworth Herald are not excelled in periodical journalism. This however, is an age of cheap literature in papers, daily, weekly, magazines, monthly and of books, at nominal prices. What will be the effect in advancing the price of our Advocate and Epworth Herald may not be foretold. We shall not fail to do our part and pledge an honest and faithful effort on the part of the pastors of Burlington District not only to maintain, but if possible to largely increase the circulation of the Central Advocate and Epworth Herald. Our Sunday School literature has the praise and admiration of our Sunday School people throughout the District. The Sunday School Journal we believe is not excelled if equalled by any like publication of any church on the Continent. I am pleased to note the increasing efficiency of the officers and teachers of many of the schools and the class of work done. A majority of the schools are missionary schools.

We have thirty-three or four Epworth Leagues and about twenty Junior Leagues. These are active in most of the churches and yield a helpful religious influence upon the society of the young people. The District League was held in June and the program extended over the Sabbath and was an occasion of deep spiritual fervor, and was of special help and inspiration to our League and church at Hillsboro, the place where held.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are organized in most of the charges and are quite aggressive and wherever maintained are active. They have a salutary influence to other interests of the local church. A joint district session of these two societies was held in New London in May, and was largely attended. The program throughout was exceptionally instructive and entertaining.

We are coming more and more to appreciate the organization under the direction and control of the Quarterly Conference, the Ladies' Aid Society. Not only in a financial way in securing funds to apply in neglected needy places, but also in cultivating a type of social life that gives enlarged views of the Kingdom of God and the high social privileges of those who hold communion and fellowship in the household of faith.

The reports of the pastors will show a handsome increase of the benevolences over any previous year. Especially so in missions and of the Iowa Wesleyan. Our motto has been "One dollar per member for missions, twenty-five cents per member for the college, all collections taken and all apportionments in full." We have not reached our ideal in every place but we are surely growing in that direction. The special offerings in missions I am not able to state, but not a little has thus been given. I will give the aggregate for Mission, $4718, Iowa Wesleyan University $1309, Conference Claimants $552, and General Conference Expenses $195. We had hoped to have met this last claim in full at this Conference. But the remaining deficiency will be met in the very near future.

Two sessions of the District Conference have been held, at which time the usual Disciplinary Business was attended to. The literary and religious parts of the programs were of interest to the brethren, and profitable to churches where held. Bishop Oldham spent a day and evening with us at Wayland, the place of our summer session. His talks and discussions throughout the day and his address at the evening session were of high order. His presence and the influence of his coming to the village of Wayland will be gratefully remembered for time to come. The records of our district proceedings are here for inspection by your Committee.

In view of my dual relation to the Iowa Wesleyan as Presiding Elder and treasurer, I might be indulged in an extended detailed report of the condition financially and otherwise of our college, but Dr. Hancher will bear to you this intelligence. Permit me to say that the past year has been one of the very best in every way. We had forty-eight of an increase in the student enrollment over the previous year. A splendid class of young men and women, who give promise of scholarship and of useful lives. No changes in faculty have occurred, save the teacher in art, who resigned to take a like position in Knox College. Miss Heath of Evanston has been employed who also takes the position of preceptress of Hershey Hall. The outlook for the coming year is very encouraging. There is prospect of a larger increase of student enrollment than last year. Already Hershey Hall is full to overflow. The Iowa Wesleyan, brethren, is in every way worthy of your ardent devotion and most generous support. Keep up the canvass for students; let us have at least our own Methodist boys and girls.

We soon shall turn away from the privileges and holy inspiration that come to us in this our annual Conference to take up the burdens, toil, and conflict of another year. We go hence not unmindful of the foes we are to meet and the hindrances that may withstand us. We shall confront in many places an open disregard of the Sabbath, the organized forces of intemperance, the flagrant violation of law, these formidable evils, with others, demand the most ceaseless vigilance on the part of the church, as well the loyal citizen. But however much to be withstood and moreover to be deplored these combined forces of evil, perhaps the greatest hindrance to genuine success in the work of the Kingdom of God in this age, is the intense and selfish commercial spirit which dominates so many of our people. The insatiate thirst, not for the waters of salvation, but for wealth and lands is apparent everywhere; and in too many cases we fear is producing a blight to vital godliness.

Stewards of the Lord's cause, in not a few instances, have a low ideal as to privilege and duty, and do not appear to care if the pastor is in want, or if the general benevolent enterprises of the church suffer damage or serious loss. But however many and combined are the forces of evil without, and how great the prevailing spirit of worldliness within the pales of our Zion, we shall lose neither heart nor hope, but when this conference ceases, we the pastors of the Burlington District shall be ready for orders from the great Head of the church and from those intrusted with authority to take up the work of another year in confident hope of additional results to be attained and victories to be won.

In closing this report I desire to express my gratitude to Almighty God for his guiding Providence through another year. "The days have not been long nor the way weary." I cherish an added regard for the pastor and his family and am not unmindful of the many favors shown me by the laymen of the district.

Respectfully submitted,

T. J. MYERS.

Keokuk District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

With gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His continued goodness and mercy, I submit to you my third annual report of the work on the Keokuk District.

With heartfelt sorrow we record the invasion of our ranks by death. In the parsonage at Selma, February 25th, after an illness of three months, the pastor, Rev. Benjamin F. Shane, was called from labor to reward. After near 37 years of faithful work in the Iowa Conference Father Shane passed quietly from the militant to the triumphant church. His funeral was held in the church at Selma, attended by many of his brethren in the Conference and a very large concourse of his friends, after which his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Mt. Moriah church.

Early in the morning of June 25th, in the parsonage at Unionville the pastor's wife, Carrie K. Barber, after most intense suffering for years, passed the portal of death into that land into which no sorrows enter. After appropriate services in the church at Unionville conducted by members of the Conference, her remains were taken to Bonaparte, the home of her childhood. Brief services were held in the church, after which her remains were laid to rest by the side of those of her father in the beautiful cemetery overlooking the Des Moines river.

At the close of the last Annual Conference ten of the charges received new pastors. One pastor returned for the fourth year, five for the third, nine for the second, and five were left to be supplied.

All appointed at Conference were early at the posts of duty, and remained faithfully at work until the close of the year, except two, Brother Shane, who was taken to his reward, and E. J. Smith, who, on account of the failing health of his wife, transferred to Puget Sound Conference in May. His place was supplied by C. A. Field from the Missouri Conference. The question of ministerial supply becomes more and more serious from year to year.

All departments of church work have been reasonably prosperous. Material improvements have been made on many of the charges. Bethel on Birmingham charge has been greatly improved by adding a tower, bell, new seats, windows, paint, and otherwise improving the building at a cost of $1200.

The church at Cantril has been improved by adding furnace, paper and other improvements at a cost of $522.

The church at Vernon on Bonaparte charge has been repapered and otherwise improved.

The church at Numa, undergoing repairs at last Conference, on Cincinnati charge was very greatly improved by adding pulpit recess, seats, paint, paper, etc., at a cost of $580.

The churches at Elm Grove, Drakeville, and Ash Grove have all been greatly improved at a cost of $350.

At Montrose cement walks have been laid in front of the parsonage and church and the property otherwise improved at a cost of $485.

Keosauqua church has undergone a general over hauling, being frescoed, recarpeted, etc., at a cost of $700.

The church at Moulton has paid the entire debt against the church property amounting to $2014.

The Selma church has been repapered and otherwise improved. About $700 have been raised on the old debt at Farmington. Donnellson charge has raised for the debt on the parsonage $500.

The church at Exline has been enlarged and greatly improved at a cost of $700. This with the parsonage which was built last year, is in keeping with the growing importance of the town, which is fast becoming an important coal mining center.

The splendid new church and parsonage combined, at Centerville, was completed and dedicated June 17th at a total cost of $47,000. Add to this the cost of street paving, sewerage, guttering and cement sidewalks, and the splendid pipe organ soon to be installed, and the cost will go beyond $50,000. Great credit is due to the people and pastor, W. P. Stoddard, in bringing to a successful consummation so vast an enterprise. We now have the best church property in Centerville, and one of the very best in the entire state. On dedication day there remained over $21,000 to be secured. There were taken about $22,000 in bonds bearing six per cent interest, more than covering the entire indebtedness. Joseph W. Powell of Buffalo, New York, had entire charge, and demonstrated his right to the title of "the greatest church dedicator, and the most remarkable layman in Methodism."

The year has been one of great advancement in our church in Keokuk. Immediately after Conference, most eligible lots were secured at 10th and Main streets at a cost of $5,450. The two old churches have been sold for $10,800. $14,000 of subscriptions have been taken, with nearly one half of the members of the church yet to be seen. These, with the Chatham Square parsonage valued at $4,000 and other assets, give us a total of $32,000 worth of church property.

An architect has been employed, and plans are being perfected for the erection of a church building, which with the grounds and furnishings, will cost about $50,000.

Great credit is due the pastor, J. W. Lambert and his loyal official board for the wise management of this most difficult undertaking.

Our church at West Grove has been freed from debt, the outstanding indebtedness of $325 having been paid and $90 raised for building and improving.

Other improvements made on the church and parsonage property bring the total up to $35,845.

The benevolent causes of our church have been carefully looked after, and in many of the charges increase in the collections will be shown. But owing to the fact that Centerville and Keokuk are in the great undertaking of church building, and that Fairfield, one of the largest givers in the district last year, was transferred to the Burlington district, and the further fact that a very few of the pastors delayed taking the collections until late in the year we shall not have as large amounts for these causes as we had hoped; yet we are expecting an increase in the aggregate.

The work for the children and youth in the Sunday School and the Epworth League is in a fairly prosperous condition, especially in the Sunday School.

The total enrollment will be about equal to the membership in the churches within the District, about 7,500.

The interest in higher Christian education continues, and our own Iowa Wesleyan University holds a large place in our hearts. We are confidently expecting an increase in both collections and students for the University.

We are greatly pleased to learn that our Financial Secretary of the Permanent Fund for Conference Claimants is meeting with success in creating a fund which in the future will provide for the needs of our worthy Conference Claimants.

Graham Hospital located at Keokuk and under the control of the W. H. M. Society has had a year of great prosperity. Over $2000 have been spent in improvements. The low percentage of deaths, the aseptic appointments and home like atmosphere, and being under the Protestant management make it a desirable place for the sick and maimed requiring treatment.

This being the only benevolent institution within the bounds of the Conference, it should receive our patronage.

The year has been blessed in the building up of the church in spiritual things. Revivals have been held in most, if not all, of the charges, resulting in the quickening of the church and the saving of sinners.

Twenty of the thirty charges reporting to me show 618 professed conversions and 662 additions to the church. While these members are not large yet they show that the spirit of revival is still with the church.

The charges showing the largest number of conversions are Cantril 68; Douds, 20; Drakeville, 35; Floris, 25; Keokuk, 65; Milton, 85; Montrose, 42; Mt. Sterling, 100; West Grove, 18; First Church, Ft. Madison, 21; Santa Fe Ave., 19; West Point, 28, and Jerome, 35; while most all report conversions and accessions.

We regret to report that our own books and periodicals are not more generally used within the district, yet we are glad to report that our own Sunday School literature is almost exclusively used.

Respectfully submitted,

A. V. KENDRICK.

Muscatine District.

With a grateful heart I present my fifth annual report of Muscatine District. Grateful to our heavenly Father for his great goodness, and for the innumerable manifestations of his loving kindness. My health has been preserved during the entire year, not having missed an appointment on account of ill health and but one on any other account. Death has not entered the homes of any of our pastors, and the general health of our pastors with but few exceptions has been excellent. At Conferference time last fall the health of Bro. J. R. Hanley was not good but he hoped that with care he might be able to do the work allotted to him on Keota charge. It was but a short time however until he decided that his strength and ability for efficient service was so rapidly declining that it would be necessary for him to resign his charge, which he did early in the year. Complete rest with efficient medical aid has proved so successful in restoring him to his normal health that, I am glad to say, he is again feeling able for service, and he is at the seat of the Conference asking for work for another year. Early in the year Sister J. W. Potter's health was so impaired that it was necessary for her to seek the protection of a more favorable climate. She with her two children went to Colorado, where she has found great relief, yet not sufficient for her to risk her health and life longer in this climate. This has left a desolate home in the parsonage at Muscatine that has been sorely felt by the pastor, J. W. Potter. The pastors have been very faithful in their work during the year, each one striving for the most excellent results in his allotted work.

At our Conference a year ago every charge in the district received a pastor appointed by the Bishop though three of them were not members of the Conference. These are H. M. Shirk at Blue Grass; W. J. Scott at Koszta and E. A. Brinton at Nichols. These brethren have been faithful in their several charges and are here for admission to membership in the Conference. As above stated Bro. J. R. Hanley resigned his charge at Keota early in the year. There was a very urgent request by the charge for the appointment of Brother J. F. Robertson in his place. I referred the matter to Bishop Warren who removed Bro. Robertson from Washington Circuit to Keota. I succeeded in securing the services of Brother John Hanks for Washington circuit for a few months, but owing to the unfavorable conditions of this climate on his health and other interests he resigned the charge and Bro. W. R. Stryker was appointed and has completed the year's work on the charge.

Special attention has been given to evangelistic work, with a most earnest desire for success. On a number of charges the success has been gratifying, though a number of the charges report no increase in the membership. Some of the pastors may be in part responsible for the apparent lack of success. There is probably some lack in persistent, courageous, prayerful, push in personal work and pastoral visitation. Some pastors find it easier to remain in the study preparing sermons and in literary pursuits than it is to get out and hustle among the people and get them committed to Christian lives. But all the blame should not lay at the feet of the pastors. For some of the charges a spirit of worldliness and indifference has seized many members of the church and lead them to be totally inoperative in evangelistic work, and other interests of a business, social or intellectual character, clubs, societies, secret and otherwise have been allowed to take the foremost places, and evangelistic work has been left for the few discouraged, though faithful members and the hardworking but discouraged pastors. What is the remedy? Special evangelists? Possibly, sometimes. But it is my conviction that far too often the work of the special evangelist is merely a performance in which there is enough pious enthusiasm to gloss over the performance to make it temporarily palatable while it is going on, but when the evangelist is gone the gloss of enthusiasm fades and the awful relapse or collapse is left for the unfortunate pastor to wrestle with. Again it is my judgment that if the evangelist is really successful he is by virtue of his success the proper one, the divinely appointed one to lead the flock thus placed under him to substantial development. The revival is only the beginning of substantial victory in a church. The better solution of the problem than that of a special evangelist is thoroughly consecrated, energetic, industrious, wideawake pastors with congregations willing to follow their leadings. Pastors who are more intensely interested in saving men and women than they are in increasing their own salaries or securing the larger places in the Conference, and congregations that are more intensely interested in saving men and women than they are in listening to sparkling generalities and glittering rhetorical phrases from the pulpits. We have had no special evangelists in Muscatine District during the past year. And this is not because the Presiding Elder has opposed them but I believe because the Lord has not sent any among us. However, I believe some steadfast, solid work has been done. We do not place so much stress on counting numbers as we do building strong upon firm foundations. The snow palace may glitter in the sunshine, but the granite wall will stand the storms. The 12th chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans is good and appropriate to present condition. Read it.

About 360 have united with the church on probation. Kallona, Muscatine 1st, Washington, Tiffin, Wellman, West Liberty, Williamsburg, Muscatine Circuit and Marengo were the larger sharers in these revival results.

We have been striving for the very best results in all the appliances of church activity. But our enthusiasm suffers somewhat as we contemplate some conditions as they are. Or were we born too early in the world's progress to have our enthusiasm fired to a glowing heat under some current conditions? Our quarterly meetings are not failures. Congregations are good, large numbers of all ages participate in the communion services. A good degree of fervor is manifested under the preaching of the Word. People are kind, complimentary and hospitable. But the love feast in many places has grown aged and decrepit, and too often fails to make an appearance. Her aged and honored sister, the class meeting, also, clothed with memories of respectability and vital energy has grown very infirm in many places and too often fails to make an appearance amid the busy throngs of current activities. Too much alive to be buried and too much dead to be counted among the aggressive forces of the current church. But while these retire I fear that too much of the living flame of religious enthusiasm retires with them. We have enthusiasm, that must be counted as religious enthusiasm, 'tis not irreligious, but manifested in other ways, in some of the younger sisters of church appliances. The Epworth League is doing a great work, and is an energetic force on Muscatine District. Nearly all the charges have active chapters, and some have three or four. I believe that a large amount of good is being done in the broad views of church life and work and bible history and teachings that are found in the uniform program used in their services. And the younger members of the church are pretty generally interested in these services. Indeed, there seems to be a larger degree of activity among the younger members than there is among the older members. This also has its aspects of hopefulness. There must be life among the younger people if the church accomplishes its mission for the coming generations. Our Sabbath schools also are almost everywhere busy hives of activity, and are accomplishing unmeasured results among the children as well as the adults. Some of the charges are maintaining vigorous, useful and hopeful prayer meetings. I am sorry to say that this condition is not as universal as it ought to be.

The ladies of the various charges are, many of them, active and energetic. We have a goodly number of Ladies' Aid Societies that are busying themselves in various financial and social enterprises in the interests of the church, occasionally lending a helping hand to the pastor when needed. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is fairly well organized over the District, though there is room for more work in that line. They are doing a splendid work, not only in gathering up money but in developing interest in the great missionary enterprises and spreading knowledge of its work. The same may be truly said of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held a profitable and interesting convention in Muscatine, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society held a convention of considerable interest and profit in Wilton. The District Epworth League had a splendid convention at West Liberty, well attended and full of enthusiasm. We had two excellent sessions of the District Conference, first at Riverside last fall and the second at Letts this summer.

We are only taking about 320 of the official church papers. This ought not so to be. We ought to take many times this number. How can we improve? Our people need the information of church work that can be found no where else. They also need the spiritual and intellectual uplift that is not surpassed by any other like publications. We are taking something over 700 Epworth Heralds. Our Sunday Schools are almost universally supplied with publications authorized by our church; 1386 S. S. Advocates, 562 Classmates, 374 Journals.

We are exerting all the wisdom and skill we know how to introduce systematic financiering in our church finances. Every year adds a few more charges to the systematic list. We have not suffered any reduction in pastors' salaries during the past year. A number of the charges have made a healthy advance, and we hope and expect to hear from all or very nearly all the charges that they have paid their claims in full. Systematic giving is also receiving a goodly amount of attention, and we are confidently expecting that the full reports of the pastors will show a goodly increase in all benevolences, missionary contributions. About $700.00 increase.

We have paid on debts $2915.00. Improvements, $5088.00.

It is a source of pleasure to know that the prospects of the Iowa Wesleyan University are still brightening. Muscatine District, pastors and Presiding Elder are glad to co-operate with the institution in every forward movement in its interests.

We are also interested in the progress of our permanent fund movement, and heartily commend the work and Christian manhood of its agent, Bro. R. L. Patterson, as he has been with us during the year.

Keota has paid off a debt of $318.00, North English $195.00, North Prairie on Sweetland charge $650.00, Williamsburg, $122.00, Muscatine, $1900.00. Amish has made improvements amounting to $150.00, Keota $61.00, Letts $45.00, Lexington, $283.00, Lone Tree $190.00, Nichols $57.00, Oxford $250.00, Webster $145.00, Wellman $110.00, West Chester $250.00. Tiffin, under the pastoral supervision of Bro. H. I. Rutledge has largely improved their parsonage at an expense of $775.00. A member of the church in West Liberty presented the church with a fine pipe organ; other improvements have been made, altogether costing $2100.00 Brother J. A. Boatman is pastor. Williamsburg has beautifully decorated their church and made substantial cement walks costing $400. Various other smaller amounts have been expended.

Respectfully submitted,

W. G. THORN.

Ottumwa District.

DEAR BRETHREN:

In presenting this my first report as Presiding Elder of the Ottumwa District, I desire first of all to express my gratitude to Almighty God for his unspeakable goodness to me during the year; for the gift of health and grace, which has enabled me to conduct in person all the Quarterly Conferences, preach more than 200 times and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on at least 108 occasions.

I am also profoundly grateful for the splendid body of preachers who man the charges of my district, and who have received me with such apparent appreciation, and so co-operated with me in all my plans as to make possible the encouraging reports of the year.

I wish also to express my appreciation of the preparatory work of my predecessor, the Rev. J. W. Lambert. As the result of his splendid administration, I found the work well organized and thoroughly systematized, an exceedingly vital condition.

At the adjournment of the last session of this Conference, the Ottumwa District was composed of 29 charges and 83 preaching places. Of the 30 pastors appointed to these charges 22 were new to their fields and as the result of transfers and resignations, seven other changes occurred in the first six months of the year; so the field has practically been manned with new men, from the Presiding Elder up.

Supplies.—The place of Junior Preacher on the Martinsburg charge was left to be supplied and much difficulty was experienced in filling the place. After trying some three or four different men without success, we divided the charge, setting apart Highland and Farson as an independent work. Bro. T. J. Pettit, of Avery, was then secured to supply the charge and has rendered excellent service.

In the first of last October, Brother G. M. Tuttle, for consistent reasons, resigned his charge at Brighton and moved to Mt. Pleasant, where he has been resting during the year. We were fortunate in securing Rev. J. E. Weigle, of the West Va. Conference, for Brighton. Bro. Weigle has rendered most efficient service.

Last March Rev. T. B. Couchman, owing to severe lameness, concluded to resign his work at Lovilia and return to the Congregational church, from which denomination he had come to us two years previous, and with our consent he accepted an appointment at Popejoy, Iowa. Brother Couchman is a most excellent man and we much regret his going from us; yet we bid him God-speed in his return. We were able to secure for Lovilia, Rev. A. C. Spencer, who comes to us by transfer from the Mo. Conference. Brother Spencer has done good work and the people have been well pleased with him.

By the transfer of Brothers W. R. Rolingson, to the Oklahoma Conference, and G. F. Cannom, to the Des Moines Conference, in the latter part of September, Durham and Richland were left to be supplied. Brother C. E. Fitzsimmons, who located at the last session of this Conference, consented to supply at Durham and we changed Bro. J. F. Barnett from Fremont to fill Richland and appointed Rev. C. E. Coggshall, a transfer from the Des Moines Conference, to Fremont. These changes have proven happy, and we welcome Bro. Coggshall back to his former conference.

Progress.—We are able to report some spiritual and material progress. Reports from the charges reveal that some nine hundred persons have professed conversion during the year, of which at least seven hundred have united with our church.

The actual increase in church membership may not appear in the statistical report for this reason: We have insisted on a complete revision of the Church Records. Many new record books have been purchased and much cleaning up has been done.

Among the charges reporting the largest number of conversions are to be mentioned Sigourney, Packwood, Hedrick, Albia, Knoxville, Kirkville, Ollie, Chillicothe, Batavia and Eddyville, while all our pastors have realized more or less results in revival work.

In property improvement we mention as follows: The splendid new church at Hedrick was dedicated September 17th, by Dr. B. I. Ives, of New York. The amount necessary to cover all debt and possible contingencies was secured in cash and good subscriptions. This represents a valuation of $12000.00

A very neat and modern church has been completed at Farson and was dedicated by Dr. J. W. Somerville, of Oskaloosa, free from debt. This property is valued at $4000. The church at Farson, together with the rebuilding of the church at Martinsburg, at a cost of more than $2000, adds other victories to the ever zealous pastor, Rev. C. L. Starr.

At Salem, on the Kirkville charge, Rev. R. A. Bruce has under way a pretty church which will be dedicated the last of this month. The cost will be $3000, and nearly all has been secured. The church and parsonage at Kirkville have also undergone considerable improvements in paper and paint, a new lighting plant for the church, also a new bell and cement walks. A nice lot adjoining the parsonage property has also been purchased. These improvements represent several hundred dollars outlay. Under its able pastor, Kirkville has enjoyed one of the most prosperous years.

The church and parsonage property at Willard Street, Ottumwa, is undergoing improvements which will cost $3000. Both buildings have been enlarged and beautified. Rev. E. J. Shook, under God, is building up a great Methodism at Willard.

First Church, Ottumwa, under its able pastor, the Rev. H. W. Hargett, has enjoyed a year of vigorous spiritual growth and activity. The congregations attending upon the regular preaching services have been increased and the Sunday School and Epworth League have made splendid advances.

At Albia, a troublesome debt of nearly $2000 was lifted July 9th. It was a great day. Dr. Ives had the services in charge and, as usual, lead that splendid people into a glorious victory. The pastor, W. S. Gardner, deserves much credit for his skillful manipulations.

Other charges making more or less extensive improvements are: Harvey, cement walks at a cost of $100; Blakesburg, new light plant and two other churches improved at a probable cost of $125; Moravia, new light plant and cement walks at a cost of $225; Batavia, cement walks and other work to the amount of nearly $200; Eddyville, a much needed furnace has been placed; Knoxville, parsonage brightened and freshened with paint and paper. Pleasant Plain, one church papered and painted. Lovilia, cistern and cement walks. Sigourney, Chillicothe and Bussey have been paying off some old debts.

District Conferences.—Two sessions of the District Conference were held during the year, one at Hedrick in November, and one at Fremont in July. Both of these were largely attended and enthusiastically enjoyed.

Sunday Schools.—We are able to report a good increase in Sunday School enrollment, and a marked spiritual growth resulting in numerous conversions among children.

Epworth League—A most enthusiastic, deeply spiritual and thoroughly practical Epworth League convention was held at Richland, June 22-4. The program represented some of the best talent in the State. Professor Minear, of our own I. W. University was present and associated himself with us in all the services, much to our appreciation and inspiration. In the love-feast, Sunday afternoon, sixty men testified to the saving grace of God.

The Epworth League is a possibility in the process of its conversion, and yet it is the most helpful institution socially and spiritually within the District.

Ladies Aid Society—One or more of these valued Societies are organized in every charge in the District. They have solved for us many a financial problem this year. Within the last twelve months they have raised and paid into the treasury of our churches more than $3100.

Ministerial Support---At the beginning of the year quite an advance was made in the amounts fixed for ministerial support, and where the disciplinary plan was adopted and worked out there will be no deficiencies. I have endeavored to lay upon the hearts of the laymen the need of a better support for our preachers, and at the same time cause our preachers to see the importance of giving the church adequate service. It is our mind that to repudiate either in pastoral support or pastoral labor, are alike inexcusable. A deficiency in either is only excusable in case of actual inability or disability.

At the beginning of the second quarter I published several thousand copies of a personal letter, in a four-page pamphlet form, covering the problem of pastoral support, and placed one in every Methodist home, or at least endeavored so to do, within the bounds of my District. At the time it created much discussion and produced some good results. I am encouraged to believe that its results will be of a permanent character.

Benevolences---We report an increase in missions of 400, education 115 per cent. I am sure, without an exception, our preachers have done their best to both educate our people relative to the benevolent causes and realize the last possible dollar. The reports will show how well they have succeeded. The large increase in the collection for the Iowa Wesleyan will be specially noticed and appreciated.

Iowa Wesleyan University---The splendid character and great need of our I. W. U. was never more fully appreciated by the Ottumwa District than now. Owing to the death of Brother C. W. Powelson and the protracted illness of the President, Dr. J. W. Hancher, but little has been done until recently by College representatives within the bounds of this District in behalf of the Emergency fund. We are doing the best we can under the circumstances and fully believe that when a thorough canvas has been made this District will come close to its apportionment.

Our Problems---The "Country Church Problem" is causing me much anxiety. How to care for these churches made weak by the loss of their children, gone out to plant churches in the utmost parts of the earth, is a question unanswered. We are doing the best we can for these churches, isolated by a foreign population, and trust that time may solve the problem.

The numerous mining camps, with a population of 14,000 miners, representing different nationalities, colors and religious faith, presents a proposition of much consideration. They are almost wholly without Protestant Christian teaching. God has sent these people into our very midst; what shall we do for them? We have preachers to put into these camps, but we have not the financial means for their support. With $500 I can make possible the support of two good men in the very heart of this mining population. I cannot rest nor get from under the conviction that we must do something for this people.

In Conclusion---Another Conference year has passed into history. We have not accomplished all we hoped for in the beginning, nor have we seen the full measure of results our hearts have craved, but we believe we have done our best.

With greater faith in God and humanity, and all confidence in the universal conquest of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, we "press toward the mark."

Respectfully submitted,
H. NEWTON SMITH.

Oskaloosa District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:— In grateful recognition of our Heavenly Father's love and care throughout the year, and with a heart of love to all my brethren, both of the ministry and laity, I bring to you my fourth report of Oskaloosa District. It has been a busy year spent in the salvation of souls, the enriching of Christian experience, the development of character and the advancing of the temporal interests of the church.

When Bishop Warren pronounced the benediction at the close of the last Conference session, every charge had a man assigned as pastor, either from our regular ranks or from without. But alas, alas

"The best laid plans o' mice and men and ere I was scarcely aware I was out in the maelstrom of this sub-episcopate in search of men. Beacon circuit was to be supplied by a brother from a sister denomination, but it seems as though his heart failed him and he did not report for duty. After three months of a most exasperating search from the New England coast to the Golden Gate I succeeded in securing S. A. Wanless of the West Virginia Conference, who proved himself to be a great preacher, but a poor man for the work on account of impaired health. Within three months he was forced to resign and since then the charge has been supplied by Alfred H. Barker, Jr., an exhorter from Brooklyn.

At Taintor Lincoln Hughes was regularly assigned, but failed to go to his work. After a few weeks, John Potter, a superannuated member of the Conference consented to supply the work and has given us faithful service. Indeed I have been astonished at the amount of work he has done for one of his years and for his labor and sacrifice I feel under personal obligation to him and his good wife.

J. W. Hackley was assigned to Newton, but a little prior to the holiday season he asked for my consent to effect an exchange with Olin S. Baker of the Rock River Conference, which exchange was made effective by the Bishops in charge of these two Conferences and Bro. Baker took charge of Newton on the Sunday preceding Christmas. Bro. Baker has proven himself to be a brother beloved, a good preacher and an assiduous pastor. After nine months of association I welcome him most heartily to our ranks. Otherwise the appointments within the District remain as Bishop Warren left them.

Sickness, Death.—In several of our parsonage homes there has been sickness during the year and in some of them it has been of a most grave character. Into one of these homes, our Lynnville parsonage, the angel of death came and took our beloved sister, Ella C. Millice. The day had been spent as usual with its home cares and duties, husband and daughter were at another appointment holding a protracted meeting, in the evening a call was made upon some near by friends and with her son she returned home about 10:00 o'clock, prepared to retire for the nights rest when suddenly she "was not for God took her." We all know that sister Millice is with God. We miss her smile, her genial good cheer and testimony of the wonderful saving power of Christ, but our loss is her gain and we, bowing our heads say, "the will of the Lord be done."

Into another home came the angel of death, this time not exactly a parsonage home, and still a parsonage home, for in it lived and died our ideal parson in the best sense, Father Joshua B. Hardy. Without any warnings save those which come through long years of service, the discharge came to this soldier of the cross on the 15th of April, Easter Sunday, as he oft expressed the desire that it might come and he awoke in the likeness of his Lord and took up his abode in that city whose builder and maker is God."

"Soldier of God, well done!

Thy glorious warfares past."

Evangelism.—The year has been filled with much evangelistic effort and I am pleased to bring you tidings of great joy over redeemed souls. I believe that every pastor has reported to me personally some conversions this year. In every instance the work has been done without the aid of outside help except two. With all due respect for that class of men who claim to be called to the work of an evangelist, I can but rejoice that the pastors of Oskaloosa District have proven themselves to be worthy evangelists and have not in any large measure felt the need of this outside help and influence. The effect upon the church will be most helpful, I think indeed, has already been upon the laymen of this District. Our churches ought to stand together with and by these "365 day men", as some one has recently styled the regular men of the ministry and in the end as large and in my judgment more wholesome results will be achieved. I have no apology for what I am saying. It is not said as an impulse but a deep settled conviction after much study of the situation that in both cases where evangelists were used within this District the individual pastors could have had as large results and more abiding than what was achieved. Let us get back to the days where every Methodist preacher is an evangelist in the best sense of that term and where every congregation lives upon the tip-toe of expectation that "today ye shall see the glory of the Lord." Away with that so-called evangelism, whose ability to attract crowds depends upon scurrilous attacks upon the ministry and scathing denunciation of the Church. After four years of closest association with the ministers of this District I posit it as my deliberate judgment that these men live well and preach well, and did many of their hearers live up to the high standard set forth by these men christian experience would be brighter and sin would not be so rampant.

I regret that I cannot give in detail the number of converted within the District this year. The failure of the pastors' reports to reach me in time is the cause of this. We started out with the slogan of 1000 souls for Christ this year and I am confident that the number far exceeds that. With our present impetus next year ought to witness a great turning to the Lord.

In our Tent campaign this summer some glorious things have been achieved. From all the meetings held with the Tent conversions have been reported, except at Malcom. Meetings were held at Madison on the Sonora Ct. Malcom, No. 7—a school house southeast of Grinnell 6 miles, Rose Hill, Lynnville and at Reasoner. The meeting at No. 7 was perhaps the most remarkable so far as results were concerned, where in two weeks were had 40 conversions and at the close of the meeting a class organized with 53 charter members. This ought to make for us a strong addition to the Ewart Ct. There are many communities within the District like that that need this special kind of evangelism from which some of our weakening circuits may find recruits and added strength.

Another meeting of which I ought to speak in this report was held in a school house three miles south of Oskaloosa. At the beginning of the year a delegation of laymen came to me and wanted that I should send a minister into that region but I had no one to send. After a few days they went to sister S. F. Keel a devoted member of Central Church to come to them and hold a series of meetings. After a few days she consented to so do. The result was simply marvelous. At the close of four weeks of service she reported to me that there had been 84 conversions. I then asked Bro. Somerville to organize them into a Methodist class, which he did with 63 charter members.

Membership.—From the foregoing words as to the evangelistic movement it is to be naturally expected that many additions have been made to the church membership. Such I confidently expect. Yet not every charge will show an increase of membership—not always due to a lack of revival effort. One pastor reports to me 37 conversions and 32 of these coming into his church, still he will report a decrease of 20 in church membership. He has given 50 church letters this year. Our wealthy farmers are retiring to the cities, towns and villages, often to the great detriment of our church interests. In not a few instances it would seem that a little more care in selecting renters of these farms might add much to the strength of the local church that has been of such inestimable value in the rearing of the family. I wish that our laymen might be made to think of these things and possibly make a little more sacrifice along this line.

Class Meetings.—It is a delight to report an actual increase in the number of class meetings held during the year. With revivals within every charge there has been a growing desire for the class meeting. No sooner do people get an experience than they desire to get together and talk of it. I look upon this increased attendance at class with great comfort and as having much for congratulation for the future.

Epworth League.—The number of Epworth Leagues remain practically the same as last year. In some there has been a marked advance, while in others there seems to be but little life and they are content to live on at the same "poor dying rate."

Sunday Schools.—I know of no new Sunday schools organized during the year, but without doubt the attendance is increased upon the whole. Every school is supplied exclusively with our own literature and all except five report that they are organized into missionary societies. In many, however, the organization does not amount to much more than one monthly offering. A very few failed to observe Children's Day but with these omitted the Children Day offering ought to show a splendid increase if the reports in the Fourth Quarterly Conference is an index.

Temperance.—The cause of gospel temperance has received a good deal of attention throughout the District. Still there is room and opportunity and need for still larger things along this line. The curse of rum grows upon me as I make my rounds quarterly. The debauching of life, the destruction of character and the sorrow entailed cries mightily to heaven for an avenger. With this curse of hell in our midst, entering our church homes, stealing our sons and daughters, robbing them of manhood and womanhood there is no place for a Christian minister to stop when he once starts into this awful warfare. If our laity could only be aroused to greater need at this time for a united action against this awful sin my judgment is it would tremendously help to usher in another Pentecost.

Benevolences.—From reports given in the Fourth Quarterly Conferences I am expecting an increase in the total benevolences of the District. How large this increase will be I am unable to say. My judgment is that most of the pastors have presented all the benevolences to their congregations this year in a creditable manner. Especially has Missions, Church Extension and the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society been presented. My only criticism is that they were rather too much delayed in doing this. I think that not only the benevolences, but all lines of church work suffers because of the habit into which most of us have fallen. of putting off the collecting of these monies until the end of the year.

Education.—The question made obligatory at the Fourth Quarterly Conference "When and by whom was the sermon on education preached" brought forth some genuine surprises. Out of twenty-six pastors eleven report "It has not been preached." In looking over my report I find that these eleven men represent thirty congregations from whom the great facts concerning this department of our Church work have been withheld this past year. This ought not to be. Our youth demand more consideration than this and no pastor, who desires to live in the memory and life of the young men and women of his congregation, can afford such an open disregard of our church's command. How much this has affected our collection for Iowa Wesleyan and how much it will affect our already too small attendance, I have no way of knowing. But that it does not tend to increase either the collection nor fill our University halls with young men and women is most apparent.

Building and Improvement.—With the dedication of our church at Montezuma in January the largest building enterprise was consummated. In it we have a most beautiful structure and complete in all of its appointments. It stands as a monument to the faith, prayers and sacrifices of the pastor and membership of that quiet little city. The cost in round numbers is $20,000, most of which is already paid and the balance well secured. This church in which we meet today, Grinnell, has undergone extensive repairs at a cost of almost $5000, practically all of which has been provided for. At Brooklyn $1,100 have been expended in placing a new furnace, relaying the floors, frescoing, etc. All of which has been paid. Delta has beautified their church and parsonage and added greatly to the comfort of the parsonage at a cost of $700.00, all of which has been paid. Reasoner Circuit has paid out over $500.00 for improvements. These are perhaps the largest sums but the aggregate will be close to $30,000 during the year.

Debts Paid.—A few churches have paid off their indebtedness that in some instances have been hard to handle. Oskaloosa pays her debt of $2500, Cedar a debt of $287. This leaves an indebtedness only at Rose Hill, Spring Valley Church of $140.

Ministerial Support.—Nothing has given me more concern this year than the support of the men and their families who have been bringing things to pass in Oskaloosa District. I regret that we cannot show an increase in the amount of support pledged but am hopeful that when the final reports are all in, to be able to show an increase in the receipts. The last Year Book shows a deficit of $609.00 on ministerial support, exclusive of Presiding Elder and Bishops and this because of the tardy methods of Official Boards. For between the time of the filing of the report and the opening of the work this year this amount was reduced to $315.00, a sum entirely too large and entirely uncalled for. The salaries pledged this year aggregate $20,850; or an average of $801.91. That there is a dollar of this unpaid is a sad commentary upon the poor methods, or perhaps no methods at all of some Quarterly Conferences and the failure in part of some men to measure up to the requirements of ministerial efficiency. With our increasing wealth and the revival spirit abroad our pastors ought to be better paid and more promptly. To solve this problem and help each church to meet every demand made upon them has been one of my constant aims this year. It is natural that I should find causes that led up to this condition of affairs. It would not be true to say that it is entirely one-sided and all the fault of the laymen. But here is where the greatest responsibility rests. As I have already indicated our financial methods are poor. If every church could be led to adopt the "Disciplinary Plan" and push that I am confident that there need be no deficiency in Oskaloosa District. But some Quarterly Conferences fail to do so and this because of a lack of wide-awake business men as church leaders. Then, too, there has grown up in Methodism the idea that if the pastor goes to Conference without his money, either his reappointment or the appointment of a new man means the cancellation of prior obligations, and I regret to say, although facts warrant it, that some pastors seem to think that they dare not insist upon the payment of their predecessor's support to the last dollar and as a result they suffer in their turn. Oh! for the day to speedily come when every congregation will be baptized with a judicious, straight-forward, honest, business-like spirit of conducting their individual affairs.

District Conferences.—Two District Conferences were held this year. The first at Oskaloosa in November and the second at Delta in June. Both were profitable seasons to the district representatives, and at Delta especially of great value to the local church.

Conventions.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society have each held profitable conventions this year. The former at Newton and the latter at Montezuma. The Epworth Leagues held a good convention at Brooklyn in June, which in point of number in attendance and spirit excelled any held within the district for some years.

Personal.—As to my own work, I have endeavored to be faithful. With perhaps nine exceptions I have been in every Quarterly Conference for the year. During the winter season I endeavored to assist the pastors in their revival work wherever I could be of service. Day and night I have been open to the demands of the District and for only two weeks have I been away from duty.

What has been accomplished by these labors abundant, I can scarcely say. At times I have been much discouraged and I can only hope that after the smoke of battle has cleared away we may see things better than they now appear. Of one thing I am confident and in this do I rest, I have at all times and in all places endeavored to do my best. The results we leave with him "whose we are and whom we serve."

JOHN C. WILLITS, Presiding Elder.

REPORTS OF DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEES.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Whereas, the American Bible Society has in hand as great and important a work as can be undertaken by man, and as it is an essential help of the church, for without its work all would be naught with us, judging from our statistical reports it is surprising how little attention comparatively has been given it.

Therefore resolved that we do most heartily emphasize the importance of bringing the attention of our people to this cause, both in private and in public. We also urge the utmost endeavor to take a collection for this coming year.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee takes pleasure in reporting that the business of the Western Methodist Book Concern continues to grow and that our Conference Claimants again become participants in its prosperity by a Dividend Draft of $1216 and a draft of $22 on the Chartered Fund already announced to our Conference. We believe our books and periodicals are of the highest type and commend them to our people as wholesome and helpful reading. We trust that our pastors will co-operate with our Publishing Agents in all plans that stimulate a wider circulation of our own literature.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

The committee on Church Insurance is pleased to note the rapidly increasing business of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company as indicated by the report of Jan. 1st, 1906. We cordially commend it to all our churches as a safe institution worthy of their patronage.

The fact that this is an official organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church makes it all the more worthy of our consideration in the interest of churches, parsonages and ministers' personal effects.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We appreciate the services of the Board of Church Extension. In Iowa 736 churches have been helped, beside thousands of others in different parts of the world. We were glad to welcome to our Conference Robert Forbes, D. D., and feel much benefited by his earnest and instructive address. This cause should receive its equitable share in the benevolent contributions, which is one-fourth as much as that for missions.

The demands of the Board are as imperative as ever. Special attention is directed to the needs of California at the present time. To the pastors we recommend that at least one service each year be devoted to this interest, that they inform the people that any person contributing one dollar will receive "Christianity in Earnest" for one year, gratis, that each pastor apply for, and receive, without charge, song service, maps and other helps, that will aid in so informing the people that they may intelligently contribute of their means.

ON EDUCATION.

Your committee respectfully submits the following report:

We note with pleasure the report of the work of the Board of Education of the past year. Nearly two thousand young men and women have been assisted to attend the institutions of the church, and more than $108,000 has been distributed among our institutions for the purpose.

We are highly gratified to note that there was an advance in the receipts of the Society of more than 12% upon the total receipts of the preceding year. The contribution of our own Conference to the Children's Day Fund for the year ending November 30, 1905, amounted to $699.98, while the Society appropriated to students within our Conference territory during the same year $1127.00. We would therefore earnestly recommend the observance of the disciplinary requirement touching the Children's Day Collection for the Board of Education in every charge within the bounds of our Conference, and that the official program prepared by the Board be used.

We rejoice in the growing usefulness of the "Christian Student" and heartily commend it to all our people. We would also call the attention of our pastors to a series of leaflets recently published by the Board and known as "The American Student Series."

We earnestly commend to our younger brethren entering the work of the ministry our theological seminaries, viz., Drew, Boston School of Theology, and Garrett Biblical Institute, as furnishing unexcelled opportunities for broad and thorough preparation for the work of the ministry. We note with special pleasure that the year was marked by the semi-centennial of Garrett, and that the event was commemorated by appropriate exercises. The record of this school in these fifty years, in the graduates sent out to bless the world with sacrificial service, in her growing finances and equipment, and in her increased student-body, is an occasion for gratitude throughout the whole church.

We commend the Woman's College of Baltimore, and the Woman's College of Jacksonville, Illinois, to our patrons within our territory who desire for their daughters the privileges of such institutions.

We hereby express our hearty appreciation of President John W. Hancher and his co-laborers in the faculty, office and field, for their able services in the interests of our college, for the past year. We rejoice that the Emergency Fund is soon to be completed. We do hereby reaffirm the recommendation made last year, that twenty-five cents per member be the apportionment to be raised for the Iowa Wesleyan University, and commend the beneficiary provisions offered by the Board of Trustees to needy and worthy youth.

We recommend that the annual report of President Hancher to this Conference be adopted, after that said report has been considered seriatim, with special attention given to the paragraphs on expense, emergency fund, and endowment. We further recommend that the report be printed in the Journal and that the paragraph on expense account be set in black faced type. Pursuant to the provisions of the revised charter of Iowa Wesleyan University, we offer the following nominations for election as Trustees and Visitors to that institution: for the office of trustee, term to expire as follows:—1907, Rev. T. J. Myers, D. D., C. P. Axtell, N. M. Harris; term to expire in 1908:—Rev. A. V. Kendrick, Rev. J. W. Lambert, John Morrell; term to expire in 1909, Rev. T. S. Pool, Rev. H. N. Smith, A. M., Ph. D., U. M. Hibbits, O. D.; term to expire in 1910, Rev. I. B. Schreckengast, A. M., S. T. B., Hon. W. S. Withrow, M. S., Chris Haw; As Visitors, for one year, Mrs. L. G. Murphy, A. M.; for two years, Rev. J. H. Koch, A. M.; for three years, Rev. D. R. Martin.

We also present the following nominations for appointment as Visitors to other institutions of the Church: to Garrett Biblical Institute,—for 2 years, Rev. J. E. Newsom, A. M. B. D.; for 1 year, Rev. J. F. Barnett, M. S. B. D.; to Woman's College of Baltimore, President John W. Hancher, A. M., S. T. D.; to Woman's College of Jacksonville, Rev. J. C. Willits, A. M., S. T. B.

We recommend that Rev. F. B. Tucker be appointed to deliver the Annual Educational Address, with Rev. H. W. Hargett, A. M., D. D., as his alternate.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF JOHN W. HANCHER,

President of Iowa Wesleyan University, to the Sixty-Third Annual Session of the Iowa Conference, Grinnell, Iowa, September 5, 1906.

The college year was busy, earnest, aggressive, fruitful, gratifying. There was an increase of college spirit. Faculty, students and patrons were measurably satisfied with the things achieved, and both hopeful and confident for the achievement of greater things in the year to come and the years. The

was 535. Fully 130 of these names were counted twice, leaving the net total enrollment about 400. This goodly number of students was gathered largely from the territory of the Iowa Conference. The influences that directed them to Iowa Wesleyan were exercised in no small degree by the members of this Conference and the alumni of the institution. Young people go to large colleges and universities because they choose to go, and because such institutions are continuously before them in the public prints. The student-bodies of our small colleges are gathered by persuasion, argument, inspiration and personal influence. The trustees and faculty of Iowa Wesleyan record their grateful appreciation of every influence that has made for the increase of the student-body, and point with pride to the splendid product of the dear old college in its alumni and former students, who have blessed the world with their enriched and multiplied values. During the past year the Christian religion has been emphasized and consistently practiced by the men and women who have occupied the chairs of instruction in Iowa Wesleyan, and many students have been enriched in their Christian experiences, while others have accepted the Master whom we love to serve, as the Prince of their hearts and lives. A gratifying experience of the college year was the almost universal and uniform pleasure and satisfaction expressed by students with the ability of their instructors and the value of the college year to them. Much good work was done. I regret that it was not better; but such a degree of excellence marked the work of the faculty that the student-body was almost absolutely without croakers or critics. The

of Iowa Wesleyan stirs my pride and challenges my admiration. In nineteen years' experience in school work I have not been associated with any other body of teachers so well equipped and qualified for the work committed to them. It is large enough in numbers and wide enough in range of subjects to meet the just demands of our patronage and of the educational world. While it is not highly paid, the trustees have made sufficient advance in the average of salaries to enable the professors to live with a reasonable degree of comfort, and they seem content to sacrifice and carry forward their work. The enthusiasm of the student-body seems equaled only by the joy the professors have in doing their best possible work and observing the splendid results achieved. Mrs. Jessie Popham Lenocker, who was Preceptress at Elizabeth Hershey Hall last year, resigned to enter one of our hospitals for training as a nurse. Miss Ella Heath, product of a Methodist parsonage in Illinois, a woman of culture, refinement, experience and enthusiastic ambition, has been elected Preceptress to succeed Mrs. Lenocker, and will enter upon her work this week. Miss Heath is an artist of no mean ability. She has taught extensively in the realm of Fine Art, and has produced some canvases that have attracted wide attention. In addition to her duties as Preceptress she will have charge of the department of Fine Art for the coming year. Mr. Fred J. Seaver, Instructor in Biology, one of the most studious and competent men with whom I have been associated in educational work, earned a fellowship in Columbia University, and has been given a leave of absence for the current year. His place is to be supplied by Mr. H. W. Edmondson, an alumnus of the State University of Iowa, who has specialized as a graduate in Biology two years. Mr. Edmondson was chosen upon the recommendation of Mr. Seaver, who had known him as a student and was acquainted with his attainments and abilities.

Your college faculty and your student-body have come together upon terms of mutual understanding and fellowship as I have not seen them do hitherto. You have by far the best school of any time in my administration. It is being maintained at far less for the amount and quality of the work done than any other small college with which I am familiar. I think the expense need not be materially increased for a number of years to come. I know it cannot be materially decreased without irreparable injury and loss to your institution. To-day we dare look the world in the face, pointing with pride to our faculty and student-body and saying, "This is a College." I have studied the finance situation with patience, toil and care. I have returned to it again and again as I have heard the clamorous cry, Retrench, Retrench. Further retrenchment means reduction in earnings; and there is no point at which retrenchment can bring earnings and liabilities together this side of zero. Shall we then liquidate and discontinue our work? I have been warned frequently in the last two years, "Unless you keep the expenses of Iowa Wesleyan down to the income we are hopelessly stranded." I should be discouraged with this clamor were it not that now and then a thoughtful business man asks me how we are getting on; and when I show him the figures he congratulates us that we are doing so well; and, again, that now and then, when I meet representatives of other college faculties and boards, they express great surprise that we are able to do the quality and scope of work we are doing with the limited outlay. We have retrenched to the limit. The solution is on the other side of the problem. Our liabilities being reduced to the minimum, we must bring the resources up to the liabilities. In this is our salvation, and unless this be done—but never mind; it will be done; it is being done; it is going to be done. I know the temper and spirit of this Conference and of Methodism; and I know that the price paid for the product of Iowa Wesleyan University is not too high at a contribution of twenty-five cents a member from the Iowa Conference to the educational collection. What, say you, will that solve our problem? Brothers! that will absolutely solve our problem. Place not less stress upon missions or other benevolences, but emphasize a little more this great and noble cause, and the thing is done. This Conference has contributed an average

EDUCATIONAL COLLECTION

for the past four years of $3748.25. It is this year $4539. This brings our average up to 14.5 cents per member; and this with 40 per cent of all the charges in four districts answering the disciplinary question at the last quarterly conference of this year, "By whom was the Educational Sermon preached?" with the pathetic confession, "It has not been preached." This 40 per cent of all the charges in these four districts represents 60 per cent of all the churches in these districts. If public address has value; if pulpit ministration has virtue; if the dissemination of literature is fruitful, and if the expression of earnest effort is potential—but why say it these things are valuable, virtuous, fruitful, potential? Let every charge have the Educational Sermon preached in every church, disseminate wholesome literature, gather the fruits in an educational collection of twenty-five cents per member; and you will protect the balance of Wesleyan's ledger on the right side, sufficiently to avoid all deficits.

The status of the bonded

of the college is little different from last year. A large number of subscribers who were paying interest on their notes at five per cent asked to be carried until the coming October, when they are to make payments which will be applied on reduction of the liability. At the annual meeting the Board asked me to give special attention to these collections and the consequent progress toward liquidation of the debt as soon as the Emergency Fund shall be completed; and I have promised to give that matter special attention. I have no doubt that it will result in a very large reduction next year. The

is well nigh completed. After turning over every duty of my office that could be committed to others, to different members of the faculty, I have given every hour that could be spared from official routine requirements, since the middle of last April, to directly or indirectly promoting the Emergency Fund. When the presiding elders met in February to consider the status of that fund they found 440 subscriptions, or $4,400 a year for six years. At Commencement I was able to report about 500 subscriptions, or $5,000 a year. When we checked up the books last Friday morning, upon my return after a long absence in the interest of this fund, we had about 550 Emergency Fund subscriptions, which number has been increased through the mails and otherwise since to about 565. Between 50 and 65 of these subscriptions are conditioned upon procuring the entire number before the close of this session of Conference. It would not be difficult to write that many subscriptions in a few minutes if we had the possible subscribers together here. But they are not all here, although some are. However, since these conditional subscriptions are before us, the fund must be completed; and, since it must be completed, it will be. We have not failed hitherto, and we shall not fail now. Many members of this Conference have subscribed to this Emergency Fund in real sacrifice. Few who have subscribed can meet their obligations without feeling it; and yet you, ministers, men who have given more generously and more largely according to your ability, twice, thrice, four times, five times, than the average of all other classes of men and women, are glad to give again and again, if only you may glorify your Christ in the promotion of his kingdom, the betterment of mankind.

It affords me no little pleasure to record here the conditional pledge of Mr. Andrew Carnegie to give $25,000 to our when we shall have raised in realizeable assets an additional $75,000. The Board of Trustees accepted the offer and instructed me to proceed toward meeting the conditions of Mr. Carnegie's subscription as soon as the Emergency Fund shall have been completed. With your co-operation and good will this thing can be done. Without it nothing that Wesleyan undertakes dare hope to succeed. Our present endowment is about $61,000. The detailed exhibit of necessary endowment, made two years ago at Sigourney and published in the minutes of that year, were conservative. We are still looking toward it. One hundred thousand dollars in the next endowment effort will be a long stride in that direction; and it is my opinion that we can raise that amount for endowment much more easily than we have raised the Emergency Fund.

The resolution passed by this Conference at its last session one year ago, recommending the Board of Trustees to take steps toward the reorganization of the of Iowa Wesleyan, was carried into effect, and the provisions embodied in the revised charter are herewith submitted to the Conference, together with the original articles of association, the charters from the beginning, and the constitution and by-laws now in effect, as a part of this report. With this pamphlet I also submit a copy of the annual catalog for the Conference files, which is likewise a part of the report. Under the provisions of this revised charter the Board of Trustees is increased in number from 24 to 28. Of these 28 the Conference elects 12, the Alumni Association 8, and the Board of Trustees elects 8. The tenure of office is four years. The Alumni Association and the Board of Trustees therefore elect, each, two trustees annually, and the Conference elects three trustees annually. At the Commencement session of the Alumni Association in June last elections were as follows:

Class 1907: J. E. Newsom, J. J. Fitzgerald.

Class 1908: J. F. Barnett, Gardner Cowles.

Class 1909: J. T. Brooks, C. S. Rogers.

Class 1910: C. P. Frantz, R. W. Johnson.

The Board at its annual session also elected as follows:

Class 1907: C. S. Williams, J. C. Willits.

Class 1908: W. J. Steckel, J. A. Boatman.

Class 1909: W. I. Babb, W. E. Keeler.

Class 1910: W. P. Stoddard, Hugh Cole.

It is the duty of this Conference, under the new order, to elect three trustees to serve one year, three trustees to serve two years, three trustees to serve three years, and three trustees to serve four years. The revised charter further provides that the Alumni Association shall elect annually one Visitor to the University, and that the Iowa Conference shall elect annually one Visitor to the University. The term of office of these visitors is three years. The Alumni Association elected as follows: J. W. Potter, 1907; E. T. Willits, 1908; C. N. Pace, 1909.

It is the duty of this Conference to elect one visitor for one year, one for two years, and one for three years. Under the revised charter, when this Conference shall have elected its trustees and visitors and that Board shall have qualified, the office of all present trustees and visitors shall discontinue. I deem it proper to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that of the sixteen trustees elected by the Alumni Association and the Board of Trustees, fourteen were selected from the then present Board of Trustees. But two new members were chosen.

It is now my painful duty to record that our genial, earnest, godly, efficient Financial Secretary, Rev. Charles W. Powelson, passed to his reward suddenly on the 6th of January, 1906. A true son of nature, a faithful servant of the Master, a man who loved to call all men brother, a co-worker who trusted absolutely and always, was never found wanting, went out from us in one brief hour. I have lost a valued helper, but what is infinitely more, I have lost a loyal friend. Few knew him as did I; none loved him more than I. His family is bereft; his work is cut short; he is laid low in his prime; the Church hath suffered loss—nay, these are human meditations. Our Father is the great lover. He rules in tenderness. He knows as we know not. We strew fragrant flowers on the grave of Charley Powelson; we moisten its cold soil with our raining tears; and, looking up to our Heavenly Father under the inspiration of the memory of this man's life of earnest and valued service, we await marching orders to fields of new conquest.

Of myself I have little to say. A year ago at Conference I was a sick man. You thought it; I knew it. Neither you nor I knew how serious it was. Baths, travel, change, sea-levels, high altitudes, mountaineering, horseback riding—all these contributed somewhat to rest and health after five and a half years that had known but three weeks' vacation; but an old injury carried from boyhood had grown so troublesome that life was in jeopardy; and so came the hospital, the surgeon's knife, skilled nurses, tender care, earnest prayer, and time to grow back to life and health and hope. My memory is especially of two things. They are not sanitation, surgery, antiseptics, nurses, or other blessings of the hospital. The one was the revelation of the triumph of grace on a day and in an hour when I must be put to sleep, ready and willing to awake under His will on this side or on the other side of the transition that men call death. Then it was that I knew as I had not known before the fullness of the life which is by faith in Jesus Christ. All glory to His name! The other was the shower of testimonials to love's tenderness and brotherhood's faithfulness that came continuously day after day in flowers, letters, telegrams, personal visits. Some of these told how many of you were thinking of your brother and co-worker and bearing him aloft on the prayers of your heart and the wings of your faith. I here express my grateful appreciation; and now I am back to health and vigor such as I have not known before since I was a lad of thirteen. I emphasize my appreciation and gratitude to God and men and my renewed purpose to make my life more and more abound unto the glory of my Christ. Amen and Amen.

N. B.—The figures of the Treasurer show the educational collection this year as follows: Burlington District, $1257, increase over last year $315; Keokuk District, $903.00, decrease from last year $21.00; Muscatine District, $848.00, increase over last year, $90.00; Oskaloosa District, $642.00 same as last year; Ottumwa District, $889.00, increase $465.00. Total, $4539.00, increase over last year, $837.00. Averages per member: Burlington District, 20.2 cents; Keokuk District, 12.5 cents; Muscatine District, 15.6 cents; Oskaloosa District, 10.8; Ottumwa District, 13.4 cents. Average for the Conference, 14.5 cents.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

The committee reports that the Episcopal Fund has received from the Iowa Conference prorata with the pastors of the Conference, with the following exception:

Keokuk District, Delinquent Exline .....$3.00

The Iowa Conference has been apportioned $1672 for the ensuing year, for the Episcopal Fund.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your committee on Epworth League begs leave to make the following report:

We desire to express our appreciation for the counsel and inspiration of Dr. Edwin M. Randall, Gen. Sec'y of the Epworth League, and pledge to him our hearty support in all his undertakings for the advancement of Our Young People's Society.

We recommend the appointment of a "Conference Board of The Epworth League," the membership to consist of four representatives from each district, one of which shall be the Presiding Elder, one the District President, one to be appointed by this Conference, and one to be elected by the District Cabinet or appointed by the District President. This board to have the power to formulate a constitution and present it at the next Annual Conference. We recommend that Rev. Elias Handy, State Pres., be temporary chairman to effect the permanent organization.

EVANGELIZATION.

As Methodists we all believe in revivals. The great body of Methodists have not come into our communion single file, but in companies of tens, fifties and hundreds, under the Pentecostal outpouring of the Holy Spirit in revival meetings. The great evangelistic movements now spreading through many denominations and blessing all Christendom are certainly the work of the Spirit of God, and call loudly for our co-operation. We have a responsibility for the multitudes of unsaved about us. We urge,

First, That each Sabbath evening service be evangelistic, that the sermon, songs and prayers have a direct aim.

Second, To hold special meetings, for weeks if necessary. Organize all your forces and concentrate them for a great victory.

Third, To make personal efforts in soul-winning, speak personally with your unsaved children, talk personally with your unsaved neighbors, visit them who do not attend church services and lovingly plead with them to come to Christ.

Fourth, To organize a summer campaign. Open air meetings are greatly blessed of God. There are fewer summer entertainments and more time to attend meetings than in winter.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

The work of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society is most vitally related to the national welfare. The society stands for the training of the hands, the heads, and the hearts of the negroes and others in our midst; and this is manifestly the only solution of the race problem. We are gratified to note the splendid results already achieved. The value of property held by the society counts into the millions; thousands of trained, educated, Christian men and women have been sent forth to bless their people; and other thousands are now receiving instruction in the schools.

Since money invested in the work of this society brings such large returns, we urge every pastor to set the facts before his people, and to raise in full the apportionment for his charge.

PERIODICAL ACCOUNT.

We, your committee on Periodical Accounts, are glad to report to you that all our members present have called on our Book Agent and settled their accounts satisfactorily. ,

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, as members of the Iowa Conference, realizing the extent and baleful influences of Sabbath desecration, urge our people to unite in special efforts to discourage such forms of amusements and pleasures as naturally destroy its sacredness and divine purpose.

We also recommend that our pastors emphasize frequently from the pulpit the duty of Christians to exercise special care to keep holy this Sabbath day.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Resolved, That we as a conference hereby express our gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the continuous prosperity which enables our people to enjoy so many of the richest blessings of life.

Resolved, That we congratulate our fellow countrymen on the increased sentiment in favor of the enforcement of all our laws without regard to persons or properties interested.

Resolved, That we are grateful for the vigorous demand for honesty in public and private affairs, and that we are glad for the many evidences of present activities in prosecution of dishonesty, which is not alone an indication of far reaching disposition toward peculation, so much as the indication of an awakening public conscience insisting upon higher moral ideals.

Resolved, That we recognize the pure food laws, as touching the adulteration of foodstuffs and the introduction of poisonous substances into prepared compounds, as of great value to the health of the common public.

Resolved, That we express our gratitude for the growing demand for fair-play which demands that combinations shall stand on the same footing before the law as the independent individual; that we record it as our conviction that the spirit of political independence, as manifested in the great breaking away from long cherished political affiliation, in the determination to secure that which is just and right and for the highest good of the state, even at the cost of party fealty, as one of the most promising signs of the times.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

We note with gratitude that the entire series of our Sunday School publications are so largely employed in the operations of our schools throughout the Conference; and that we not only disapprove the introduction of any other publication, but urge the entire adoption and use of our own. We recognize none as superior, and congratulate our church, especially upon its very efficient help to teachers given in S. S. Journal, and heartily recommend its introduction into every home, and that the pastors heartily co-operate with the publishers to increase its circulation.

II. We heartily approve the plan of Dr. McFarland for a more thorough training of teachers of our Sunday Schools, and recommend that pastors use their utmost efforts to procure for their schools the Teachers' Library recommended by him.

III. We recommend that the plan of taking the S. S. collection by classes be adopted, in competition for the silk honor banner.

IV. We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. I. O. Kemble as secretary of this Conference, to co-operate with the secretary of the S. S. Union in all matters relating to Sunday School interests.

V. We urge that our own work be given its proper place,—that is, first place,—not to be narrow or sectarian, but to be loyal to our own.

It is the duty of this Conference to elect one visitor for one year, one for two years, and one for three years. Under the revised charter, when this Conference shall have elected its trustees and visitors and that Board shall have qualified, the office of all present trustees and visitors shall discontinue. I deem it proper to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that of the sixteen trustees elected by the Alumni Association and the Board of Trustees, fourteen were selected from the then present Board of Trustees. But two new members were chosen.

It is now my painful duty to record that our genial, earnest, godly, efficient Financial Secretary, Rev. Charles W. Powelson, passed to his reward suddenly on the 6th of January, 1906. A true son of nature, a faithful servant of the Master, a man who loved to call all men brother, a co-worker who trusted absolutely and always, was never found wanting, went out from us in one brief hour. I have lost a valued helper, but what is infinitely more, I have lost a loyal friend. Few knew him as did I; none loved him more than I. His family is bereft; his work is cut short; he is laid low in his prime; the Church hath suffered loss—nay, these are human meditations. Our Father is the great lover. He rules in tenderness. He knows as we know not. We strew fragrant flowers on the grave of Charley Powelson; we moisten its cold soil with our raining tears; and, looking up to our Heavenly Father under the inspiration of the memory of this man's life of earnest and valued service, we await marching orders to fields of new conquest.

Of myself I have little to say. A year ago at Conference I was a sick man. You thought it; I knew it. Neither you nor I knew how serious it was. Baths, travel, change, sea-levels, high altitudes, mountaineering, horseback riding—all these contributed somewhat to rest and health after five and a half years that had known but three weeks' vacation; but an old injury carried from boyhood had grown so troublesome that life was in jeopardy; and so came the hospital, the surgeon's knife, skilled nurses, tender care, earnest prayer, and time to grow back to life and health and hope. My memory is especially of two things. They are not sanitation, surgery, antiseptics, nurses, or other blessings of the hospital. The one was the revelation of the triumph of grace on a day and in an hour when I must be put to sleep, ready and willing to awake under His will on this side or on the other side of the transition that men call death. Then it was that I knew as I had not known before the fullness of the life which is by faith in Jesus Christ. All glory to His name! The other was the shower of testimonials to love's tenderness and brotherhood's faithfulness that came continuously day after day in flowers, letters, telegrams, personal visits. Some of these told how many of you were thinking of your brother and co-worker and bearing him aloft on the prayers of your heart and the wings of your faith. I here express my grateful appreciation; and now I am back to health and vigor such as I have not known before since I was a lad of thirteen. I emphasize my appreciation and gratitude to God and men and my renewed purpose to make my life more and more abound unto the glory of my Christ. Amen and Amen.

N. B.—The figures of the Treasurer show the educational collection this year as follows: Burlington District, $1257, increase over last year $315; Keokuk District, $903.00, decrease from last year $21.00; Muscatine District, $848.00, increase over last year, $90.00; Oskaloosa District, $642.00 same as last year; Ottumwa District, $889.00, increase $465.00. Total, $4539.00, increase over last year, $837.00. Averages per member: Burlington District, 20.2 cents; Keokuk District, 12.5 cents; Muscatine District, 15.6 cents; Oskaloosa District, 10.8; Ottumwa District, 13.4 cents. Average for the Conference, 14.5 cents.

Keokuk District, Delinquent Exline .....$3.00

The Iowa Conference has been apportioned $1672 for the ensuing year, for the Episcopal Fund.

VI. We appreciate the purpose of our publishers in their endeavor to co-operate with the spirit of the times in making Evangelism their keynote. That the S. S. Journal, the Classmate and S. S. Advocate are giving emphasis to this. We urge a faithful effort toward a larger circulation of these very helpful publications.

TRACTS.

We gladly commend the work of the Tract Society and believe it contains a potentiality not yet realized, because of limited resources, and that it is a vital force in the dissemination of truth, especially in its ability to extend beyond the reach of preacher and teacher in city missions and pagan field. But great usefulness should be realized from the Tract Society by the pastor among his own people, because it offers a veritable arsenal of information bearing on doctrines and duties in home and church, all of which may be found in a well selected bunch of tracts given back free to the extent of one-half the contribution to this benevolence; said tracts supplied at the rate, nominally, of fifteen pages of printed matter for one cent.

We therefore recommend that each pastor supply himself and the Tract Committee, the catalogue of the society's publications, and that he raise the full apportionment for this worthy cause, and that one-half this amount in carefully selected tracts be applied by the Tract Com. to the good of the work.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee on Temperance beg leave to offer the following considerations:—

1st. The former actions of our General and Annual Conference as set forth in our Discipline and Year Books are still expressive of our present position and determination.

2d. The action of our recent Legislature in putting a time limit to all permits for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages is recognized as a far-reaching act in the right direction to contract the lines of the enemies of temperance.

3d. We recognize no victory as final until the whole traffic in intoxicating beverages shall be under complete subjection to the highest and best principles of temperance legislation.

4th. We heartily commend the organization and work of the Anti-Saloon League in its state and nation wide movement.

5th. We advise and exhort the voters of our church to give their suffrage only to such men to sit in our state legislature as are clean in life and who are recognized as holding the best temperance principles.

6th. We nominate as delegates to the eleventh national convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, to be held in St. Louis, Mo., November 19th-22d, 1906, C. S. Cooper and C. L. Tennant.

7th. We nominate as Trustees of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League U. S. Smith, J. F. Barnett. H. F. Gilbert, alternate.

8th. We nominate for officers of the Iowa Conference Temperance Society:--

President—H. T. Robinson.

Vice President—W. S. Gardner.

Secretary—H. F. Gilbert. *

Treasurer—C. N. Pace.

9th. We nominate C. S. Cooper to preach the annual temperance sermon before the Iowa Conference Temperance Society, at next session of Conference.

10th. We heartily commend the active and efficient work the past year of C. S. Cooper and request his appointment as District Superintendent of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We recognize in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society the most efficient agency for Christianizing and developing the womanhood and girlhood of heathen countries, and for enlisting, organizing and educating the women of our churches for this great work. We heartily express our highest appreciation of the helpfulness of this great society as an arm of the church, and extend to all its workers our fullest support and encouragement.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Whereas, The thoughtful student of affairs notes with deep concern the large influx of foreigners to our land, the increasing tide of crime, and the chasm existing between the Church and a large class of our people; therefore be it

Resolved, That we hail with delight and confidence the Woman's Home Missionary Society as an important factor in cultivating these needy fields.

Resolved, That we hereby record our sincere appreciation of the work this society is doing through the Deaconess movement and Schools, Orphanages and Hospitals under its control.

Resolved, That the Society within the bounds of the Iowa Conference shall be aided by our prayers and sympathy in its work and that we will welcome the representative of this society to our charges, and will aid in any way we can in the promising hospital work of the Graham Hospital at Keokuk which is under the Society's control.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee on District Conference Records submits the following report:—

We have examined the records of all districts except those of the Ottumwa district, which were not submitted, and have found them in good condition with the exception of a District Conference Roll in the case of the Muscatine district.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DEACONESSSES.

The following are hereby recommended as Class 3 on the Board:—
Mrs. L. G. Murphy, Rev. I. B. Schreckengast, Rev. D. C. Bevan.

Miss Verta M. Naylor was licensed as a Deaconess, she having completed the prescribed course of study, and recommended for consecration to that office and work.

The characters of Miss Mary C. Jackson and Miss Wilhelmina Wertz were passed, and their work heartily commended.

We recommend the following for adoption:

Resolved, That we specially congratulate the Woman's Home Missionary Society of our Conference in its possession of the splendid hospital in Keokuk, and its admirable record for the past year. We are in hearty sympathy with the effort made to meet the ever increasing demands for hospital service under the care of our church. We also recommend this institution to those who are seeking to become nurse deaconesses. GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

TO THE IOWA ANNUAL CONFERENCE:—

We, your visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, beg leave to submit the following report.

We were highly pleased with the exercises of the semi-annual. The program began May 5th, 1906, and continued four days. It was exceptionally pleasing and edifying. A memorial volume, containing the addresses of the various speakers, is now in process of publication by the Board of Trustees. This volume will be an exceedingly valuable addition to any pastor's library.

The evangelistic spirit continues to stir the hearts of the faculty and of the students. Five of the graduating class are among the volunteers for the foreign field.

There were numerous evidences of prosperity attending the institute. We mention the $20,000 gift for a fire-proof addition to the library, which will provide a place for the many rare volumes and ancient manuscripts which are being gathered up by the friends and the alumni of the institute. The enlargement of the work in the department of practical theology, whereby increased attention is to be given to the cultivation of English style, to Sociology, to Sunday Schools, to Missions and Evangelism, is specially worthy of note. Happy the young man who in his preparation for the best service in the Christian ministry, is permitted to take his theological course at Garrett Biblical Institute.

HOSPITALS.

We congratulate our Methodism in Iowa upon possessing two such splendid hospitals, as are found within the state. At Des Moines the new building has been completed, and adds largely to the capacity and efficiency of that magnificent institution.

The W. H. M. S. of our conference is to be congratulated upon the possession of the fine hospital property in Keokuk, and upon its splendid record as revealed in the Report of the Board of Deaconesses. And we heartily sympathize with the effort made to meet the increasing demands for hospital service under the influence of our church; and to this we extend our sympathy and co-operation.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE EMERGENCY FUND.

The special committee on the Emergency Fund met with Dr. C. L. Stafford in the chair, and submit the following report:

First, After a canvass of the "Emergency Fund Subscription" it was found that 18 pledges are yet lacking of the 600; and that 68 of these in hand are conditioned upon the whole amount being secured by the close of this Conference session. Therefore, we recommend that this matter be taken up in open Conference by Dr. Hancher and the subscription completed.

Second, This committee having learned that certain laymen attending the Conference have made helpful suggestions, and tendered their personal services toward promoting the interests of Iowa Wesleyan University, respectfully recommend the appointment of an Iowa Wesleyan Laymen's Commission whose duty it shall be to co-operate with the trustees and officers toward the greater efficiency and larger usefulness of that Institution. The commission shall consist of at least six laymen from each District, to be nominated by the Presiding Elders, and elected by the Conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BROTHERHOOD WORK.

Thankful for the re-awakening of the church to the possibilities of the service of men in the salvation of men.

We commend the Brotherhood movement to all our pastors and laymen, believing that through such organization of our men we may develop a corps of skillful workers whose object and aim shall be the salvation of their brothers.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, All the members of this Conference and the visitors thereto have been entertained with abundant hospitality and received with unfeigned cordiality; and

Whereas, The choir has added much to the pleasure and profit of the meetings, therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our gratitude to the Rev. J. M. McClelland, the pastor, to his people, to the membership of the sister denominations, and to all who have contributed to the entertainment of the Conference. That we extend to them our hearty thanks, justly due them for their kindness. That we acknowledge with gratitude the services of the choir and organist during the session of this Conference.

Resolved, That we extend to Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell our heartfelt thanks for his unfailing kindness and courtesy in his administration of the affairs of this Conference. That we express our appreciation of the splendid addresses he has delivered and especially his conduct of the morning devotional service. That we will most heartily welcome him to the Presidency of our Conference at any time that, in the Providence of God, he may be appointed to preside over us.

REPORT OF THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY OF THE IOWA CONFERENCE PERMANENT FUND.

Another year closes with a sense of the Divine presence and help in the work we have done. We have not achieved all that we planned, but the Fund will show a healthy increase, and the confidence inspired among our people is a splendid omen of greater things to come. As a rule our ministers have given us their cordial sympathy and co-operation in our work.

Total subscriptions at last report .....	$ 8,045.18
Subscriptions during the year .....	9,206.20

Total .....	$17,251.38

Salary and expenses, deducted .....	1,336.31

Balance .....	$ 4,531.98
Net cash and subscriptions .....	$19,540.27

In planning the work for another year, I hope we shall make it, by hearty co-operation, a year of marked advance. I desire to make it Permanent Fund Year in that I shall spend two months consecutively in each Presiding Elder's District, and that under the auspices of the Presiding Elders and pastors at least two mass meetings shall be held at strategic points to be addressed by such laymen and ministers as they, in concurrence with your President of the Board of Stewards, may select. With my view of the field, I suggest the following arrangements of Districts:—October and November, Oskaloosa; December and January, Burlington; February and March, Ottumwa; April and May, Muscatine; June and July, Keokuk. The Permanent Fund has passed the stage of experiment. It is a great and continuously increasing reality. I pray that, seeing eye to eye, and standing shoulder to shoulder, we may inspire our laity to place on God's altar the last dollar of the $50,000 needed in the near future.

MRS. CARRIE K. BARBER.

Carrie Kean was born in Bonaparte, Van Buren County, Iowa, May 19, 1851, and died in the parsonage at Unionville, Iowa, Monday, June 25, 1906. She grew to womanhood and was educated in the town of her birth. She was united in marriage with Geo. W. Barber, November 28, 1871. To this union was born one son, Harry J. Barber, who, with his father, survives her. Sister Barber was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in January, 1866. In September, 1882, her husband was admitted on trial in the Iowa Conference, and for nearly twenty-four years she shared with him the trials and triumphs of an itinerant's life. She was active and self-sacrificing in the Master's service, being especially efficient as Sunday-school teacher and choir-leader. She took especial interest in training young people in Christian work, until failing health made it impossible. For about thirteen years she had been a great sufferer at times, and eighteen months ago she was taken with the fatal disease which ended her life. A beautiful and impressive service was held in the church at Unionville, conducted by members of the Iowa Conference, after which her remains were brought to Bonaparte, and brief services were held in the church of her childhood, conducted by the writer, assisted by the pastor of the church and a faithful local preacher, who accompanied the sorrowing family from Unionville. In the beautiful cemetery, overlooking the Des Moines river, we laid her wasted body beside that of her father, to there await the morning of the resurrection.

REV. JOSHUA B. HARDY.

Joshua B. Hardy was born in Fayette County, Pa., February 7, 1820, and died in Brooklyn, Iowa, April 15, 1906, aged 86 years, 2 months and 8 days. He was married July 9, 1845, at Lebanon, Iowa, to Miss Emma, daughter of Rev. Milton Jameson, a pioneer Iowa Methodist preacher. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Emma A. Stafford, of Brooklyn, Iowa, and Mrs. Nora N. Kellum, who died six years ago. Besides, he leaves eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mrs. Hardy died in 1896, a loss which he felt seriously, and which he never fully overcame. His father removed to Ohio when the boy was only four years old, and he grew up in Hamilton County, Ohio. When young he had serious impressions. From his parents he had received a religious training, and from his earliest childhood he says he realized much tender emotion, and often prayed and felt happy; but this state of feeling passed away. But later he was the subject of deep conviction, and in his sixteenth year, at a camp-meeting near Oxford, Ohio, he was soundly converted. Sometime later he removed to Burlington, Iowa, where he united with the Old Zion Methodist

REV. JOSHUA B. HARDY.

Joshua B. Hardy was born in Fayette County, Pa., February 7, 1820, and died in Brooklyn, Iowa, April 15, 1906, aged 86 years, 2 months and 8 days. He was married July 9, 1845, at Lebanon, Iowa, to Miss Emma, daughter of Rev. Milton Jameson, a pioneer Iowa Methodist preacher. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Emma A. Stafford, of Brooklyn, Iowa, and Mrs. Nora N. Kellum, who died six years ago. Besides, he leaves eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mrs. Hardy died in 1896, a loss which he felt seriously, and which he never fully overcame. His father removed to Ohio when the boy was only four years old, and he grew up in Hamilton County, Ohio. When young he had serious impressions. From his parents he had received a religious training, and from his earliest childhood he says he realized much tender emotion, and often prayed and felt happy; but this state of feeling passed away. But later he was the subject of deep conviction, and in his sixteenth year, at a camp-meeting near Oxford, Ohio, he was soundly converted. Sometime later he removed to Burlington, Iowa, where he united with the Old Zion Methodist Episcopal Church. Prior to that time he was licensed to exhort, and the Old Zion Quarterly Conference voted him license to preach in the spring of 1842, and recommended him to the Annual Conference for admission on trial in the fall of that year.

Brother Hardy entered the Rock River Conference, which then had supervision of the work in Iowa, as a probationer, in 1842, and in 1844 the Iowa Conference was formed, and at its first session, at Iowa City, in August of that year, he was received into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Thomas A. Morris, and two years later, at Muscatine, then called Bloomington, he was ordained an elder by the saintly Bishop L. L. Hamline. His appointments, as shown by the official records, have been as follows: 1842, Mt. Pleasant circuit; 1843, Clear Creek, Mission; 1844, Farmington; 1845, Pittsburg circuit; 1846, Bloomington, or Muscatine; Ottumwa, 1848, Yellow Spring circuit; 1849, Marion Mission; 1850, Iowa City Mission; 1851, West Point; 1852, Oskaloosa circuit; 1853-4, Washington; 1855-8, Des Moines District; 1859, Fairfield Station; 1860, Bloomfield Station; 1861, Chatham Square, Keokuk; 1862, Birmingham; 1863-6, Oskaloosa District; 1867, Albia; 1868, supernumerary; 1869, Grinnell; 1870, Brooklyn; 1871, transferred to the Des Moines Conference, and appointed to Winterset; 1872, Sidney; 1873, re-transferred to the Iowa Conference and appointed to Blue Grass, where he was returned the next year; 1875-76, Pleasant Hill; 1877, Victor; 1878-79, Brooklyn; 1880, Eddyville; 1881, superannuated. It thus appears that he was twenty-nine years in the pastorate, eight years on districts, one year supernumerary, and twenty-five years superannuated. All his work was in Iowa, and sixty years of his ministry were spent in connection with the Iowa Annual Conference. Thus honorably to himself and usefully to the Church did he round out the sixty-four years covered by his ministry. It should be noted also that, through the early years, many of his fields of labor were quite large, involving much travel and exposure, and danger by floods and storms.

His knowledge of the Scriptures and his acquaintance with theology was quite extensive; and his ministry, while it did not conceal the perils of a sinful life, was pre-eminently a gospel of peace, comfort and assurance. And one thing that gave force to his teachings was the fact that it was the echo of his own experience. He spoke that which he knew and testified to that which he had seen. And the conviction which he had of his duty to preach gave authority and power to his word. In the good providence of God he was permitted to remain in the field longer than any of his early comrades, and as the years passed by he continually grew in the confidence, sympathy and love of his brethren, with whom he lovingly labored. For his long term as a non-effective man was not a time of idleness. Brother Hardy will be greatly missed at the sessions of the Conference which was so often stirred by his fervent addresses. It is pleasant to think that in the end the message came to him gently: and that he literally slept in Jesus. It is also a singular and happy coincidence that, as he had often expressed the wish that he might die on Easter day—the day when his Master rose triumphantly from the grave—this also was granted him; and on that day, leaving, it is true, his worn body to be reverently laid, like his Lord's, in the tomb, his ransomed spirit was taken to be "forever with the Lord." The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, Tuesday, April 17th. Short addresses were made by Revs. E. H. Waring, J. P. Corley, W. G. Thorn, J. F. Newsom and J. C. Willits, and interment was made in the Brooklyn cemetery.

ELLA C. MILLICE.

Mrs. Ella Cerepta Watson was born near Warsaw, Indiana, March 26, 1860, and died in the parsonage at Lynnville, Iowa, March 9, 1906. On October 2, 1879, she was married to Rev. Henry C. Millice, by the Rev.

F. T. Simpson. To this union were born two children, Bessie Cecil and Henry W. C., both of whom survive her.

In her early childhood she gave her heart to God, experiencing a change of heart, and was always conscious of her Redeemer's love. On the 28th day of June, 1881, she was received into full membership in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Warsaw, Indiana, under the pastorate of Dr. R. N. McKaig.

With her husband she came to Iowa in the winter of 1883-4, where she has since lived. Their work in the ministry began at Koszta, Iowa, where her husband took up the work, December 15, 1883, Mrs. Millice, with their daughter, coming in February, 1884.

Of her immediate family her mother, Mrs. Clemina Watson, (aged 80,) and two sisters, Mrs. Anna McCuaig and Mrs. Minnie Berry, all of Goshen, Indiana, survive her, none of whom were able to be present at the funeral.

Her funeral was held from the Methodist Church at Lynnville, Iowa, on Tuesday, March 13, 1906, conducted by the presiding elder, Rev. J. C. Willits, and assisted by Brothers, Jay W. Somerville, A. W. McBlain, R. I. Patterson, David Phillips, J. E. Nowsom, W. N. Hall, the first pastor with whom they became acquainted in Iowa and who conducted the funeral service of Bro. Millice's mother at Selma, Iowa, April 8, 1887, and Rev. Wm. Kirby, pastor of the Friends Church. The pall bearers were Bros. Somerville, U. S. Smith, Patterson, Phillips, L. G. Cummins and J. E. Nowsom. Other brethren present were John Potter and L. A. Crull, also Mrs. J. C. Willits, Mrs. John Potter and Mrs. W. A. Jackson.

Her remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Woodland Cemetery at Lynnville.

The large number of persons present and the beautiful floral offerings attested the high esteem in which she was held in the Lynnville parish. Sister Millice was a devoted Christian and everywhere in her husband's pastorates proved an efficient helper. She always wore a smile and scattered sunshine all about her. To her, religion was truly a life that sent her about doing good. She believed in God, in the church as His institution for lifting this world up, and in men as the object of the Savior's love. Consequently she was not a pessimist but always took the most optimistic view of life, hence her ability to help people.

Her death was sudden. Returning from a neighbor's home at 9:30 o'clock p. m. in usual health, she retired; at 11:30 she called her son, and at 11:45 she passed to her crown. As the end came she asked him to hold her head and said, "Do not let me fall, I believe I am dying." She died in her son's arms, no one else being present, Brother Millice and their daughter Bessie being at Searsboro conducting revival services. There was no excitement but calmly she turned to her son and asked him to be a good boy, and was not, for God had taken her. To the family there is great comfort in her death because of her life. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

REV. CHARLES W. POWELSON.

The subject of this sketch was born of Christian parents, in Muskingum county, Ohio, March 9, 1849, and departed this life, after a very brief illness, in the early morning of January 6, 1906, in Davis City, Ringgold county, Iowa, away from home and family. He was, as it seemed, in years, 9 months and 27 days old. He grew up to manhood in his native state, enjoying the educational advantage of the public schools, which gave him a fair qualification for business life. Very early in life he was made conscious of his obligations and service to God, and at the age of sixteen he professed religion and vowed a saving faith in Christ, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for a number of years was a faithful and consistent layman of said Church. In the year 1870, on the second day of January, he was married to Miss Julia A. Buell, of Marion county, Ohio. The early years of his married life were spent in Ohio, in various business pursuits, in which he was quite successful. In 1881 he came to Iowa, and located in Ringgold county, and continued in active business life until the year 1886. Feeling at this time that he owed to God and to his fellow-men a better service, without a question as to where this consecration might lead, or what responsibility it might bring, he cheerfully responded to the call of God and the Church of his choice. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference at Kellerton, Iowa, in the bounds of the Des Moines Conference, and began at once to use his gift and grace as a preacher of the gospel.

Soon after his license as a local preacher, he spent a few months as an agent of the American Bible Society. Having come into the territory of the Iowa Conference, he was, in the fall of 1886, recommended by the Keokuk District Conference to the Iowa Annual Conference, and at Washington, Iowa, was admitted on trial and appointed by Bishop Bowman to the Plano circuit. Two years later he was granted a membership in the Conference and ordained deacon by Bishop Goodsell, at Oskaloosa, Iowa. His ordination as elder was at Grinnell, Iowa, by Bishop Joyce. The charges that he served (in each of which he greatly endeared himself to the people, both in and out of his parish,) are as follows: Plano, 5 years; Cincinnati, 1 year; Mount Pleasant circuit, 5 years; Burlington circuit, 5½ years; and 3 years as financial agent of Iowa Wesleyan University, in which service he was engaged at the time of his death. His ministry was specially characterized as evangelistic. Every appointment to which he was sent as pastor was blessed through his ministry with revivals. He always lamented his lack of thorough educational preparation for the work of the ministry, and at times felt keenly this disadvantage. But, notwithstanding his lack of special training for the ministry, it must be said that in many things he excelled and was rated by his brethren in pastoral and ministerial service above the average.

The earthly life and mission of C. W. Powelson is ended, and he has passed into the skies and into the paradise of God. He leaves his wife, two sons and nine daughters, three brothers, who live in Ohio, and a sister in Kansas, who mourn his death. The funeral services were held in the college chapel at 2 p. m., January 9, 1906. They were conducted by T. J. Myers, presiding elder, who also gave a sketch of his life, and in brief spoke of his personal relation, and of the character of the deceased. The following brethren took part in the religious service: Dr. Swickard, Thomas Osborn, G. M. Tuttle, and J. A. Glendinning. Dean Piersel recited Tennyson's poem, "Crossing the Bar." Addresses were made by Dr. Lymer, in behalf of the college; Pastors Tennant, of Burlington, and Handy, of Washington, who spoke for the Conference. The pall-bearers were Pastors Byrkit, Sinclair, Hightshoe, J. S. Pool, Decker and Stoddard.

REV. B. F. SHANE.

Benjamin Franklin Shane was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, December 1, 1837, and died in Selma, Iowa, February 25, 1906. He was educated in Lavilla and Steubenville, Ohio. He was married to Miss Hannah E. Shane in 1860; she died in Attica, Iowa, April 27, 1873. He was married to Miss Lou Anderson, of Knoxville, Iowa, April 28, 1874. By the first marriage there were born five children, two of whom are living; by the second marriage there were born two children, who also, with the wife and mother, are his survivors. Brother Shane came to Iowa in 1865, locating at Eddyville, from thence he moved to Kirkville, having charge of the public schools during the time of his residence held at these places. He was born of Christian parents, members of the United Presbyterian Church, in which he was reared. He was converted at eighteen years of age and united with the United Presbyterian Church. Some time afterward he and his mother united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the fall of 1869 he united with the Iowa Conference, in which he faithfully served to the end of his earthly career, on the following charges: Fremont, 1 year; Attica, 3 years; Granville, 2 years; Montezuma, 3 years; Lynnvill, 2 years; Kellogg, 3 years; Ladora, 3 years; Victor, 3 years; Keota, 2 years; Letts, 1 year; Cincinnati, 3 years; Selma, 5 years; Batavia, 2 years; West Grove, 2 years. He superannuated in the fall of 1904. He was serving his second year of a second pastorate at Selma when he died. He preached his last sermon November 27, 1905. During his illness he frequently gave assurance of being prepared to go, death having no sting for him. One morning after a refreshing sleep, he testified, saying, "My Savior I saw standing by the bedside, smiling sweetly upon me." Bro. Shane fell asleep sweetly and peacefully in Jesus, thus entering that rest for which he lived. Appropriate funeral services were held in the church at Selma, February 28. They were in charge of A. V. Kendrick, presiding elder of the Keokuk District, and Rev. Dr. C. L. Stafford, of Bloomfield, with other members of the Conference assisting; there being eighteen preachers present to pay tribute to his memory.

CHARLES F. WILLIAMS.

When the heavens opened to receive the ransomed spirit of the Rev. Charles F. Williams, a true and noble man came to his coronation.

Brother Williams was born in Hadley, Ill., November 5, 1841, and full vigor of a mature manhood, being only at the time of his death 56 entered into rest at Davenport, Iowa, January 9, 1906.

The family removed to Keokuk, Iowa, in 1848, where the boy received his early training in his father's school, and for a year in Yellow Springs College. He completed his college preparatory course at Williamstown, Mass., and in 1858 entered Williams College, graduating therefrom in 1862, under the presidency of that princely man, Mark Hopkins. He then taught for two years in the New York House of Refuge, and when but twenty-three years of age was offered the honorable position of assistant superintendent. Declining this promotion he returned to the West, and was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Perry, Ill., for a year, his father being at the same time the pastor of the Presbyterian Church. A part of the time between 1868 and 1870 he was engaged in mission work in the mountain region of Arkansas. In 1871 he was married to Miss M. Eleanor Libbey, of Perry. They went to Kansas, where Brother Williams spent two and a half years in the pastorate at Pleasanton and Winfield. Thence he came to Iowa, and served as chaplain of the Penitentiary at Fort Madison for a term of four years, and again later, from 1886 to 1891. He joined the Iowa Conference in 1878, and served in several pastorates with fidelity. His appointments were: Wapello, Mediapolis, First Church, Keokuk, and after an interval, Williamsburg. In 1891 he organized the Children's Home Society of Missouri, serving as its secretary and field representative, and later had substantially the same work in Iowa for a time. In 1896 he became secretary of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League. Impaired health led him to Colorado for a season, where he supplied at Glenwood Springs and at Lamar, and in 1904-5 he supplied the Blue Grass circuit, Muscatine District, Iowa Conference, doing there faithful work, never missing an appointment, although more than once no congregation appeared, owing to inclement weather. From 1902 he sustained a supernumerary relation, though preaching and lecturing about as much as when in the regular work. He had a mission, and must fulfil it: he had a message, and must declare it; and he counted not his life dear unto himself that he might accomplish the ministry with which he had been entrusted by the Lord Jesus.

Of the commencement of his religious life he wrote: "Just before my fifteenth birthday I gave my heart to the Lord Jesus Christ, and in obedience to the dictates of my conscience and the impulses of my heart consecrated myself to the work of the ministry." That surrender to the Lord Jesus was as complete and irrevocable as was that of Saul of Tarsus; that consecration to the work of the ministry an unreserved and living sacrifice—a joyfully reasonable service. Profound piety, constant devotion, a steadily deepening experience of fellowship with God, a growing sense of citizenship in the heavenlies, marked the advancing years of this son of the manse—a seer and prophet of the John the Baptist type.

A severe fall in 1895 doubtless developed the cruel cancer which terminated his life. If any saw a change in his spirit during the last few years, they may now learn the cause. Bravely, patiently, heroically, the man was battling for life without really knowing his enemy, suffering constantly, and yet doing his best to meet the demands of duty alike to his family and the Church. Alas, that we did not know as did God and the angels of his heroic struggle!

He leaves a widow and an only son, who took their dear dead to Perry, Ill., for burial, January 13, 1906. Memorial services were conducted at Davenport by the Revs. W. H. Blanke and Mott R. Sawyer. Brother Williams was "a good man," of vigorous intellect, of indomitable purpose, of sturdy convictions, of stalwart will, of utter devotion to conscience and his sense of duty. Pre-eminently he was adapted to reformatory work, and won his brightest trophies in that field. He rests from his labors, and his works of faith and love and devotion follow him.

NELSON WELLS.

On Wednesday, May 30th, 1906, the heavens opened to admit one of God's elect after sixty-three years of faithful service.

Rev. Nelson Wells was born in Erie Co., Pennsylvania, Sept. 2d, 1825.

When he was a year and a half old his parents moved to Herkimer Co., N. Y. At the age of eleven years he was left motherless and from that time was thrown upon his own resources. By dint of hard work he educated himself and later taught school.

In February, 1843, he was converted and two years later joined the Methodist Episcopal church. He went to Illinois in 1851 and in October of that year was licensed to exhort. A year later he was appointed junior preacher at Mason Mission in Grundy Co., Ill., a charge that required two hundred miles' travel to make one round. After a single round of the mission he was licensed to preach.

He came to Iowa in the fall of 1853 and engaged in teaching school at Salem. In January of the following year he was appointed by the Presiding Elder of the Burlington District as junior preacher on the Yellow Spring circuit, Rev. M. See being preacher in charge.

On June 1st of the same year, 1854, he was united in marriage to Mary Coiner, with whom he lived until her death just two weeks preceding his own. Their Golden Wedding was celebrated in 1904. Their union was blessed by eleven children, nine of whom were reared to maturity and seven of whom still survive.

Nelson Wells was recommended to the Iowa Conference at Dubuque in the fall of 1854, and was appointed to the Vinton circuit.

During his ministry he served at the following places in the order named: Pleasant Valley, Farmington, Pittsburg, Burlington circuit, Brookville, Chillicothe. From the latter place he enlisted as a private in the War of the Rebellion, 1864, being assigned to Co. M, 2d Iowa Cavalry. He received an honorable discharge at Selma, Alabama, Sept. 19th, 1865, and once more entered the ministry, serving the following appointments: Grandview, Richmond, West Liberty, Wilton Junction, Washington, Marshall, (now Wayland,) Winfield, Lexington, South Burlington, (now Grace Church,) Mt. Pleasant circuit, Ainsworth, Riverside, Lynnville and Montezuma circuit. From here he took a superannuated relation on account of failing health in the autumn of 1885. Thus his active ministry extended over a period of thirty-three years, uniting the age of pioneer circuit riding with that of the modern Methodist itinerant. His connection with the Iowa Conference covers a period of fifty-two years. During his ministry he was instrumental in the conversion of more than a thousand souls.

He was ever known for his deep piety and broad culture, being recognized in his best days as one of the most logical and original thinkers in the Conference. He was pre-eminently a self-made man. His writings have found frequent place in Methodist publications and his noble influence still lives to bless the world.

The funeral service, conducted by Presiding Elder T. J. Myers, assisted by Rev. T. S. Pool and G. W. Byrkit, was held in the 1st M. E. Church of Mt. Pleasant, where he had lived since 1895. He was laid to rest in Pleasant Hill cemetery by the side of his wife and daughter, all three of whom passed to their reward within eighteen days.

MRS. MARY C. WELLS.

Mary Coiner was born in Ross county, Ohio, July 17, 1835. With her parents, Christian and Elizabeth Coiner, she came to Iowa in 1848, settling in Des Moines county. In 1854 she was married to Rev. Nelson Wells, one of the early pioneers of the Iowa Conference, to whom she has ever been a Christian helper and a devoted wife. Mrs. Wells was the mother of eleven children, nine of whom she reared to maturity. She was a woman of great physical energy and endurance, of intelligent and cultured mind and of large heart, which throbbed in sympathy for all humanity. The supreme characteristic of her long and beautiful life was a spirit of self-sacrifice that no words can portray—a spirit that placed her loved ones first in everything, that knew nothing but self-abnegation and unparalleled generosity. By the ministers and their families who knew her she was characterized as a woman of rare sweet dignity. She was wise and economical in management, gracious and forgiving toward all—a woman loved by all who knew her. Mrs. Wells was converted at the age of fifteen years, and for over fifty-five years has walked with Jesus as a constant companion. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn their loss, but the former is in a critical condition and doubtless will soon pass to his reward and once more meet his wife and daughter so recently departed. For many years this good woman and her husband have resided at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, he being in the superannuate relation to his Conference. The funeral was held at the family home on Monday, May 21, 1906, under the direction of President J. W. Hancher of Iowa Wesleyan University.
